

Pharmacotherapies Training For Alcohol & Other Drug Workers

Introduction

Turning Point Alcohol and Drug Centre has been contracted by the Drugs Services and Policy Branch, Department of Human Services to provide a number of professional development training courses. These are intended as a supplement to the competency based training and assessment courses provided as part of the DHS Minimum Qualification Strategy.

Course overview

This course will update participants on the latest developments including new medications and guidelines. Five sessions are offered across the state. Core content includes

- Why are substitution therapies prescribed?
- What pharmacotherapies are available?
- What is the successful formula for treatment?
- What's on the horizon?

Trainers

Turning Point Alcohol and Drug Centre staff conducting the courses have extensive clinical and training experience. This training is free to DHS funded workers. Lunch, including a vegetarian selection is provided
